HITTING DOES IT

Riversides Unable to Do Anything With the Islanders Sunday.

DISTANCED ON HOME STRETCH

Johnny Baker Taken Out of the Game and Lelivelt Substituted—Official Scorer's Seat Sold.

GAMES TOMORROW.

Rock Island at Davenport. Dubuque at Cedar Rapids. Bloomington at Peoria. Decatur at Springfield.

With 14 hits the Islanders took the first of the Davenport series on the Riversides' home grounds Sunday afternoon, the score being 6 to 2. Johnny Baker was put clear out of business and was taken out in the sixth inning. "Noah" Webster, with all of his wisdom, seemed to not appreciate the fact that the trouble was not with the pitcher, but with the hitters, for Lelivelt, who was substituted fared no better. Hagerman was in the box for the Islanders and held his opponents down to six hits.

Seating Plan Failure.

The grand stand and bleachers were filled, and a large part of the attendance was from Rock Island. The plan of reserving seats was a failure. It may be all right if worked right, but it certainly was not worked right. The management thought that the new plan should be tried, and seats were reserved Saturday and Sunday in the grand stand. The official scorer's seat was sold and he had to hunt a place in the grass. Then, one by one, the other newspaper representatives who had stationed themselves in the press box or back of the board, were politely informed that they would have to vacate as the seats they were occupying had been sold. They were about to sell the players' benches, but there was such a row about it that the deal was called off. If there had been a seat for the umpire anybody who had a quarter could have bought it.

Start Well.

The Davenport fans felt very good for about two or three innings. Burg pulled out a run in the first and Williams one in the second, and it was not until the fourth that the Islanders took the lead. While three hits were picked up by McConnell's men before that it was then that the storm began. Wanner again became troublesome, and instead of being satisfied with a single as everybody else had been, and making a gentleman's game of it, he began to cry for a two-bagger, and was not satisfied until he got it. Vandine saw that the Davenport people did not like the hogishness that Wanner had displayed and he only asked for a single. This brought Wanner home, and while everybody was watching the attempt to catch the runner at the plate Vandine sneaked around to third base. He scored on Walters' grounder. The play was again made at the plate, but Nieman did not have the ball when he needed it most, just the situation he was in when Wanner scored.

More in the Seventh.

By the time the seventh inning had rolled around the gentlemanly part of the game had all disappeared and they all began grabbing everything in sight. McConnell took a single, and Hagerman intended his for only a base hit, but when Burg and Williams monkeyed around and would not pick up the ball he went to second on it. By that time Carlisle was getting "fussy" and just to get even with somebody he took a wallop at it for three bases, scoring McConnell and Hagerman. He scored on an error by Burg. Exciting Game Saturday.

Christy Wilson Hit on Arm with Thrown

Ball—Rabbits Won Out in Ninth.

At Cedar Rapids Saturday, the Islanders hammered in four runs in the third inning and had the game apparently won. During that inning Christy

Wilson, who was on the slab, was hit in the arm with a thrown ball and had to retire. Flynn succeeded him and in the fifth was being touched up rather freely and Manager McConnell sent

Lundin in. The Bunnies kept crawling up and in the ninth inning with two men out Neal Ball beat out a bunt and

Himes scored from third on the play,

winning the game. Score:

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure

the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson

of Masonville, Iowa, "that for blind,

bleeding, itching and protruding piles,

Bucklin's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25 cents at Hartz &amp; Ullemeyer's, druggists.

No one wants to unferrate the Rock

Island team. Manager McConnell has a fast fielding and fair hitting bunch

together, and they are doing nice team work. McConnell is a clever catcher and a good general. The Islanders

will be in the race all through the season.—Cedar Rapids Gazette.

Hoag, recently with Rock Island,

pitched for Burlington against Keokuk

in the Iowa league Saturday and received an unmerciful drubbing. He was driven to the bench in the early part of the game and Coons took his place. Both pitchers were released.

Hoag was in Rock Island today.

Sued by His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive

for a case of cholera morbus," says R.

White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial

he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea

Remedy he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say

under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all leading druggists.

GOSSIP OF THE GAME

The Greenbush aggregation defeated the Seventeenth street Stars in a game Saturday, the score being 7 to 4.

The Rock Island Independents were defeated Sunday afternoon in a ball game by the Grand Isle team by a score of 7 to 6.

Lister, Lundin and Ruby got mixed up with a lawn mower this morning and it is doubtful if their friends will recognize them on the diamond for a few days.

No one wants to unferrate the Rock Island team. Manager McConnell has a fast fielding and fair hitting bunch together, and they are doing nice team work. McConnell is a clever catcher and a good general. The Islanders will be in the race all through the season.—Cedar Rapids Gazette.
